F.S.S. 782.04 (2): Second Degree Murder

On February 14, 2016, at 5:31 p.m., the Fort Myers Police Department Communications Division received a 911 call from a male who said, "I need an ambulance. I'm sorry I need an ambulance. I need an ambulance." The male caller was transferred over to an EMS call taker. When asked for the address he said, "Hell I need an ambulance. I'm sorry. I need an ambulance. I need an ambulance." He then provided the location of the [REDACTED] and later the building number of [REDACTED]

The male said there was something wrong with his girlfriend. He said his phone number was 940-7655 and said the following when asked (see transcript excerpt below):

Q2: Okay tell me exactly what happened with her?
A1: Yeah I'm not sure, I'm not sure, sir. I just got home. I just got home, sir. And I just ran in and she's fucking just sitting there sir.
Q2: And what is she doing? You said she's sitting there?
A1: She's just sitting there. I don't know what's wrong with her. I don't know what's wrong with her.
Q2: Is, is she awake?
A1: There's fuckin' blood all over...
Q2: Is she conscious?
A1: ...all over her. She's got blood everywhere. Sir, oh my God.
Q2: All over her?
A1: Yes, yes. Yes, oh my God.
Q2: Alright stay on the line with me. Law Enforcement can you be enroute?

When asked if he was with her now, the male, who identified himself as Tony, said no. He said his phone was downstairs and that his kids were in the car. When asked if the female was awake and breathing, he said he wasn't sure, but he could go check.

Tony called out to his girlfriend [REDACTED] when asked to and he relayed that she was not responding to him. When asked if she was breathing, he was not sure and stated he could barely see because it was "kind of dark" and said he was going to turn something on. When asked where the blood was coming from, he said it was coming from her nose.

AFFIDAVIT

When he was asked to lay her flat on her back on the ground, Tony said that she was stiff and not moving and he started crying. Tony then told the call taker that he had her flat on her back at which point he was instructed to start CPR. He was given direction on how to start chest compressions until help arrived. Tony said he was doing them and began to count them out with the call taker. Tony was later heard calling out to someone and alerting them of his location.

Lee County EMS

Lee County EMS personnel Christopher Kuchinskas (EMT-Paramedic), William Bradford (EMT-Basic), and Carlos Materato (EMT-Basic) arrived on scene at approximately 5:43 p.m. and subsequently documented the following in the Prehospital Care Report:

"y/o female found laying supine next to the bed. There was a male who was inconsolable and distraught beside her trying to move her to do CPR. He appeared to be trying to push on her but was not actually pushing. Where his hands were located were also almost below the ribs at her abdomen. He was doing this all while trying to keep his phone to his ear. It was immediately observed that there was clotted blood around her nose. Lividity and rigor were present. Rigor was present throughout her whole body. Her feet were immovable. There was blood on the bed and blanket. When we were finally able to move him from her we could see his phone still connected to 911. A broken door jam and the 'lock' were noticed in the bedroom, in the corner behind a box. It appeared to have come from the front door. Further reliable information is not available."

Lee County EMS declared the female dead at 5:44 p.m. Fort Myers Police officers and the Fort Myers Fire Department also arrived on scene at 5:44 p.m. The male caller was later identified as Earl Antonio Joiner (DOB 12/08/85). The deceased female was identified as [REDACTED]

Sergeant Jason Petaccio entered the bedroom and observed Joiner kneeling beside [REDACTED] body. Sergeant Petaccio asked Joiner for his name three times and received no response. Lieutenant Roger Valdivia then asked Joiner multiple times to leave the bedroom. Joiner remained silent and eventually complied. Joiner was escorted to a chair in the living room and officers assessed the scene. Lieutenant Valdivia secured the scene pending the issuance of a search warrant and contacted members of the Fort Myers Detective Division and Victim's Advocate Chevala Jones.

Officer Matthew Yeomans escorted Joiner outside of the apartment and downstairs to the parking lot. Officer Yeomans located Joiner's daughters, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Joiner, in the rear seat of the vehicle that was still running. The children were removed from the vehicle, a 2011 gold Dodge Journey bearing Florida license plate 4417GH. The vehicle, registered to Earl Joiner, was also secured pending the issuance of a search warrant.

Fort Myers PD Homicide Unit

Several members of the Fort Myers Police Department Homicide Unit, to include Sergeant Brian O'Reilly, Detective Michael Walsh, and Detective Albert Antonini were notified and responded to the scene. Upon arrival Detectives were briefed on the findings of the preliminary investigation. Detective Walsh was assigned as Lead Investigator and took multiple digital photographs of the scene.

After arriving on scene, Detective Walsh observed a black male, later identified as, Earl Antonio Joiner (dob 12/08/85), sitting in a chair next to a Dodge vehicle with Officer Yeomans and Victim Advocate (VA) Chevala Jones nearby. Detective Walsh introduced himself to Joiner (who identified himself as "Tony") and continued to the crime scene. Joiner refused to provide an explanation as to [REDACTED] death and requested a lawyer.

FMPD Crime Scene Unit

FMPD Crime Scene Technicians Trina Maurice, Jessica Worlty and Marissa Poppell were notified and asked to respond to the scene. Upon arrival they met with Detective Walsh who provided them with details of the preliminary investigation. The scene was photographed, and a search was then conducted for any items and areas of possible evidentiary value. One (1) fired cartridge casing (9 mm Tulammo Luger) was located in the northeast corner of the bedroom. The casing was inside of a small open cardboard box, between the nightstand and the south wall. One (1) live round of ammunition (9 mm Tulammo Luger) was discovered in the closed nightstand drawer next to the bed.

Davis said that [REDACTED] frequently told her that Joiner never helped her with their children.

Sergeant Breneman spoke with Cynthia Horner, who stated that she used to work at H&R Block, where she knew [REDACTED] as a co-worker. Horner stated that she did not know [REDACTED] very well, because [REDACTED] had only been working there for a few months. On March 27, 2019 Detective Maalisa Langton was notified by Cold Case Investigator Dennis Lambert that he had discovered photographs on [REDACTED] cellular phone records of an unknown male holding a gun. The photographs are of an unknown male holding a 9mm semi-automatic pistol in his right hand. The image was taken from outside the passenger side of a vehicle from an unknown person. Investigator Lambert was able to read the serial number of the pistol (Serial No. TIR44633).

Detective Langton contacted Agent Ivan Kovacevich of the Department of Justice Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), and requested that he run a trace on the firearm.

On April 4, 2019 Detective Maalisa Langton received a Firearms Trace Summary from Agent Kovacevic. The trace summary revealed that on October 31, 2015 a firearm (a 9mm Taurus PT709 SLIM with serial no. TIR44633) was purchased by Dennis George Schiaroli (DOB 07/01/83) at Shoot Straight located at 2418 Colonial Boulevard in Fort Myers, Florida. Agent Kovacevic later provided Detective Langton with copies of the Shoot Straight Firearms Transaction Records for two firearms purchased by Schiaroli (the 9mm on 10/31/15 and a .40 caliber Smith & Wesson on 12/31/15 - Serial No. FXC6325).

On April 4, 2019 at 5:02 p.m. Detective Maalisa Langton and Agent Kovacevic conducted a digitally recorded sworn statement with Dennis Schiaroli. This statement was taken at his place of business, Monahan's Plumbing located at 4708 SE 8th Court in Cape Coral. His father, Dennis Schiaroli Sr. (DOB 03/22/57) was also present. Below is a summary of his interview to include but not limited to:

- Schiaroli acknowledged that he did purchase a Taurus 9mm with serial no. TIR44633 from Shoot Straight on October 31, 2015.
- Schiaroli owned the firearm for approximately one year before he sold it to a guy named Tony who worked at Southern Supply (Company Inc. - 2535 Palm Avenue) in Fort Myers. Schiaroli had known Tony for a couple of years. Tony sold plumbing supplies and worked in the warehouse. Schiaroli described Tony as a tall and "dark but brownish coloring" male with dreads.
- Schiaroli went to Southern Supply and asked around if anyone wanted to buy a gun because he had one for sale. Tony was interested and said it was his birthday. Tony told Schiaroli he would ask his girlfriend if she would buy it for him. Schiaroli took a photograph of the gun and texted it to a phone number that Tony provided him.
- A week or so later Schiaroli met with Tony at the Southern Supply warehouse where Tony purchased the gun for approximately $380 or $400. Tony told him his girlfriend had given him the money. Schiaroli sold him the gun in the original box with all the paperwork and warranty information it came with. He noted the gun had never been used or fired. Schiaroli did not sell him any ammunition.
- At the time, Schiaroli produced a hand written Bill of Sale receipt that they each had a copy of. Schiaroli noted that he held onto it for approximately three years and just recently threw it in the garbage. Schiaroli could not recall the exact month he sold the gun to Tony but believes it was in 2016 and again noted that Tony said it was his birthday.
- Schiaroli noted he may have seen Tony at Southern Plumbing one more time after the sale of the gun and then never saw him again after that.

Detective Langton presented Schiaroli with a single-color photograph of Earl Antonio Joiner (DOB 12/08/85). Schiaroli positively identified Joiner as the male he knew as Tony and the same male he sold the gun to. Schiaroli initialed and dated below the photograph that was subsequently placed into the Fort Myer Police Department Evidence Vault.

Detective Langton also presented Schiaroli with the photograph of a male holding a gun that was discovered on [REDACTED] cellular phone. Schiaroli confirmed that was the picture he took himself of the gun and the same picture he texted to the number provided to him by Tony. Schiaroli initialed and dated the back of the photograph that was subsequently placed into the Fort Myers Police Department Evidence Vault.

Detective Langton spoke with Dennis Schiaroli, a credible and reliable witness who stated that he knew Joiner by name and sight as a person who dropped off plumbing supplies at his place of work. Schiaroli stated that he knew Joiner to work for Southern Supply Plumbing and knew Joiner's employer to be a man named Sal Falcone.

Schiaroli stated that in 2016, he mentioned to Falcone that he was looking to sell a 9mm Taurus firearm that he had purchased in October 2015. Schiaroli stated he already had two other firearms and didn't feel that he needed a third. Nemeth stated that she was shocked to hear that Joiner had taken his daughters out of town, because she knew that Joiner refused to watch the children for even brief amounts of time. Nemeth stated that Joiner couldn't take his daughters' crying and wouldn't agree to watch them when [REDACTED] would go to Walmart.

Nemeth stated that [REDACTED] mother had called her that weekend and told her that she couldn't reach [REDACTED] and was concerned. Nemeth stated that she was the person who called and told [REDACTED] mother that [REDACTED] was deceased.

Detective Langton spoke with Chevala Jones, a Victim Advocate with the Fort Myers Police Department. Jones stated that she was called out to [REDACTED] on a death investigation on February 14, 2016. Jones stated that when she arrived on the scene, she was instructed to take custody of [REDACTED] and Joiner's two young daughters.

Jones stated that while at the scene, she spoke with Joiner who asked her to call his mother on his behalf and she agreed to do so. Jones stated that she called Joiner's mother and told her there had been a death and that someone needed to come take custody of Joiner and [REDACTED] children. Jones stated that Joiner's mother agreed to come take custody of the children, but never asked who had died.

Jones stated that she provided Joiner with several services for families who had lost family members, but Joiner never followed up for assistance.

AFFIDAVIT

Manner of Death: Homicide

Alliants spoke with Dr. Thomas Coyne, a credible and reliable witness who stated that he performed the autopsy on [REDACTED] on February 15, 2016. Dr. Coyne stated that he determined that [REDACTED] died of a single gunshot wound that entered the orbital region of her face and severed her spinal cord, prior to exiting the back of her neck. Dr. Coyne stated that he also observed bruising on [REDACTED] forehead, arms, and thighs and noted that they varied in degrees of healing. Dr. Coyne noted that there were no soot marks or stippling on [REDACTED] gunshot wound, indicating that the muzzle of the firearm was at least three feet away from the entry point at the time the weapon was fired.

Alliants talked to Gertrude "GiGi" Fleurantin, a credible and reliable witness who stated that she knew Joiner by name and sight as a former coworker that she had a past sexual relationship with. Fleurantin stated that she became sexually active with Joiner in early 2015, when he was still together with [REDACTED]

Fleurantin stated that they had sex occasionally, and that [REDACTED] was very jealous about Joiner's relationship with her. Fleurantin stated she would receive calls from [REDACTED] at work and on her cell phone.

Fleurantin stated she knew that Joiner had purchased a Taurus and noted that she remembered "Taurus" because that was her own astrological sign. Fleurantin stated that Joiner complained about being trapped by [REDACTED] and told Fleurantin that he thought that [REDACTED] had somehow gone off birth control and became pregnant by him.

Fleurantin stated that [REDACTED] once came in the Circle K store, looking for Joiner, but that [REDACTED] wouldn't make eye contact with her. Fleurantin stated that it appeared that [REDACTED] had bruising on her face.

Fleurantin stated that after [REDACTED] murder, Joiner seemed depressed. Fleurantin stated that she and Joiner continued to be sexually active and that she spent time and money trying to help him stabilize his life. Fleurantin stated that despite this Joiner would occasionally become very angry with her if she questioned him about other women. Fleurantin described an incident where she had found Joiner with another woman, which angered Joiner. During another incident Fleurantin went to his house in Winter Haven and knocked on his window. Joiner ran outside and up to her and got in her face. Fleurantin stated he looked eyes with her and told her "If you don't quit this, I will find ways for you to be missing." This scared her.

On June 4, 2019, Detective Laughton conducted a non-custodial interview with Joiner. In this interview, Joiner acknowledged that he was the last person to ever talk to [REDACTED] but stated that he did not know if [REDACTED] had been planning on having anyone visit her or not. Joiner stated that he and [REDACTED] had previously made plans to go to Winter Haven, Florida on the weekend of February 13th & 14th, 2016, to visit Joiner's family.

Joiner stated that he and [REDACTED] had a "disagreement" and [REDACTED] decided not to join the rest of the family for the trip to Winter Haven. Joiner characterized the disagreement as being over Joiner "enjoying Fort Myers" and he explained that he enjoyed the nightlife and being out on the town. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] was not angry with him, rather she just wanted him to be home with the baby. Joiner acknowledged that there was a lot of pressure in the household over bills, and that he told [REDACTED] that he was going to take their children and go visit his mother. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] did not care that he was leaving, because she knew where he was going. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] had previously taken the children with her on a trip without him and it was not that big of a deal.

Joiner stated that he did not remember the specific time that he left for Winter Haven but stated that it was "a little dark," so he believed that it was in the early morning. Joiner stated that during his time in Winter Haven, he attempted to contact [REDACTED] but he could not recall whether he had tried to call her or text her. Joiner stated that he believed his mother had tried to contact [REDACTED] to "smooth over" the disagreement with Joiner. Joiner stated that he knew [REDACTED] was not responding to any efforts to reach her.

Joiner stated that when he returned to Fort Myers on February 14, 2016, he left his children in the family Dodge while he went inside the apartment. Joiner stated that his intent was to get [REDACTED] to come outside and assist him with bringing the children inside because the youngest child was asleep. Joiner stated when he arrived at the front door, he found that it was unlocked and slightly open, which was not normal.

AFFIDAVIT

Joiner described finding [REDACTED] body as "a bad situation" and stated, "I didn't know what was going on." Joiner stated that the police at the scene did not want to talk to him that night, although he really wanted to talk to them to find out what was going on. Joiner stated that he was "stung for days" and couldn't remember what he did afterwards. Joiner stated that he was contacted several days later by an attorney that he knew through his job as a bail bondsman. Joiner could not recall the name of the attorney but stated that the attorney informed him that the police were acting like he (Joiner) was a suspect and that he needed a lawyer.

Joiner again reiterated that he was not in a fight with [REDACTED] on the night of February 12, 2016 and stated that he only spent $200 at the strip clubs Lookers and Babe's that evening. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] "would not have been mad at all" because he was making "decent money back then." Joiner said [REDACTED] was not upset, but they merely had a disagreement about him not being home. Joiner said he recalled [REDACTED] getting her tax return but didn't think that it was an issue between them. Joiner stated that he thought that they had separate checking accounts back then.

Detective Langton confronted Joiner with several angry texts [REDACTED] had sent him during the evening of February 12, 2016, including ones that said "Wtf!!!!" for not answering her calls and another that told him he had "two seconds" to return her call. Joiner dismissed the texts and stated, "she wasn't upset at all." Joiner then stated that [REDACTED] was steadily texting him and that was bugging him. Joiner stated that since [REDACTED] was bugging him, he decided that he would go spend Valentine's Day with his family.

Joiner was evasive about talking about other women he was seeing while in a relationship with [REDACTED]. He repeatedly stated that "Gigi was just a good friend," but he did not deny having a sexual relationship with her. Joiner declined to name how many other women he was seeing, but he did not deny that there were more.

Joiner denied that [REDACTED] had come looking for him on the night of February 12, 2016 but acknowledged that she may have done so in the past. Joiner was adamant that when he returned to his apartment in the early morning hours of February 13, 2016, that [REDACTED] was already home.

Joiner acknowledged that he may have called his mother at 3:12 a.m. on February 13, 2016 but stated that it was just to let her know that he was coming to visit. Joiner stated that he also may have called his brother in the early morning hours of the February 13, 2016 but stated "it could have been something about the strip club." Joiner acknowledged that he may have been drinking that night but stated that he wasn't sure.

Joiner stated that he didn't know anything about the crown molding on the front door being broken and he denied ever striking [REDACTED] in the head with the end of a bat, stating that was something that [REDACTED] mother made that up and "she never had a bat to her head." Joiner stated that the bumps on [REDACTED] head were from the door striking her head when he pushed it open. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] had been blocking the door and it struck her when he pushed it open.

Joiner acknowledged owning multiple firearms, including a 9mm Taurus that he purchased from a guy named Dennis at work for $200 or $300. Joiner stated that he had purchased ammunition for the 9mm at a gun store called Shoot Straight and that he only purchased one box of ammunition for that gun. Joiner said he had guns because of the area where he and [REDACTED] lived, but that he never had a conversation with [REDACTED] about having guns in the household. Joiner stated he was not sure what ultimately happened to the 9mm, stating that he sold it on the street to a "3rd party." Joiner could not identify when he sold the gun or to whom.

Joiner said he would not be surprised if he skipped work on February 13th and February 14th without calling in, saying he did so frequently. Joiner said his job at Circle K was a bad job and that he was underpaid, so he did not feel guilty about skipping work.

Joiner denied calling an attorney named Reginald or Reggie Estelle on Saturday, February 13th at 4:45 p.m. Joiner stated that he did not know anyone named Reggie Estelle and that he would have had no need to call an attorney on February 13th. Detective Langton showed Joiner a photograph of Estelle and Joiner denied having ever met him. Joiner also stated that he did not recall a dancer at Babe's named Arianna.

Joiner again denied being in a fight with [REDACTED] in the early morning hours of February 13, 2016 and denied ever striking [REDACTED] with a firearm or pointing a firearm at her. Joiner stated that [REDACTED] "gladly helped" him pack for their children as he was leaving. Joiner stated that he never hurt nor threatened [REDACTED] that weekend. Joiner stated that he didn't recall taking any "sellies" of himself crying on the morning of February 13th, 2016 and could offer no explanation why he would have done so. Joiner could not explain where he had gone between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on February 13, 2016. Joiner said he thought he was having "drunk man's sleep" at that time, despite the fact that he had earlier stated that he couldn't recall if he had been drinking that night.

Joiner stated that he did not think that [REDACTED] knew that he had been withdrawing money from the ATM at Babe's and Lookers on the night of February 12, 2016. Joiner denied there being any yelling that night and stated that they were giving each other the silent treatment. Joiner then contradicted himself about [REDACTED] knowing about the money, stating "she saw the money and you know . . ."

Joiner stated that when he and his children left for Winter Haven on February 13, 2016, it was daylight and that he agreed that it could have been 10:23 a.m. as seen on the apartment complex video surveillance. Joiner stated that when he and the children left that time, [REDACTED] was alive. Joiner stated that he did not know if he left the keys to his work truck for [REDACTED] when he left but stated that he could see no need for her to have a vehicle while he was gone. Joiner questioned why [REDACTED] would have needed a vehicle if she was already home. Joiner did acknowledge that he had never taken the girls to Winter Haven to surprise his mother before that date. Joiner stated that he tried to contact [REDACTED] while they were gone but could not remember whether he had called her or texted her.

Joiner stated that he didn't go to [REDACTED] funeral because he didn't know it was happening. Joiner stated that representatives of DCF had ordered him not to make contact with [REDACTED] family and that he didn't have any phone numbers because the police had confiscated his cell phone.

Joiner could not think of anyone that would want to harm [REDACTED] and stated that he doubted it was any of the women he was seeing behind [REDACTED] back. Joiner stated that it was simply a rough neighborhood. Joiner stated that he did not believe that [REDACTED] was having a relationship with anyone other than him. Joiner denied ever slapping or punching [REDACTED] and could not explain why [REDACTED] would have had multiple bruises in various stages of healing at her autopsy.

Joiner stated that he routinely checked up on the status of the investigation into the case by contacting his attorney. Joiner could not remember the name of his attorney but said that his attorney would always tell him "Bro, it's still an investigation."

Specialized Interview & Medical Examination of [REDACTED] at CPT

On February 17, 2016 a specialized interview was conducted with [REDACTED] by Lupe Zambrano, Case Coordinator, of the Child Protection Team at the Children's Advocacy Center. Detective Langton and DCF Investigator Selena Hinsdale were present. This interview was neither video nor audio recorded.

[REDACTED] reported that on February 16, 2016, while at the courthouse, he was playing with [REDACTED] outside the courtroom. [REDACTED] threw her stuffed animal and then herself on the ground on her back. She then began making a gurgling sound. When he asked her what she was doing she told him she was playing. [REDACTED] believed that she was mimicking something she had witnessed. He noted that [REDACTED] never told him if she saw her parents fighting.

[REDACTED] also reported there was a history of domestic violence between his sister and Joiner. The abuse began when [REDACTED] became pregnant with [REDACTED]. Joiner said he did not want the child and claimed it was not his. Once [REDACTED] was born Joiner seemed to have a change of heart and was very loving towards her [REDACTED]. While living in Key West with their mother, [REDACTED] and his mother witnessed Joiner shove [REDACTED]. They contacted the police and Joiner was escorted out of the residence. No charges were filed.

On February 17, 2016 at 11:17 a.m. an audio/visually recorded specialized interview was conducted with [REDACTED] Joiner by Lupe Zambrano. Detective Langton and DCF Investigator Hinsdale observed the interview from the viewing area (separate room).

Zambrano's impressions and recommendations were as follows: "Based on the information obtained thus far during the assessment process, it is the overall opinion of CPT that there is indication of threatened harm of [REDACTED]"

Blascoe's impression was that [REDACTED] may have witnessed her mother's murder. She reported she likes 'fruit snacks'. She was asked who she lived with and she said 'mommy's house'. [REDACTED] also reported that her 'poppy' lives in the home along with her sister 'lani'.
